Splattered Paint Marketing Offers to Boost Businesses, Urges Owners to Prepare For New Customers!

RIVERVIEW, Michigan (August 29, 2018) While addressing the ever-growing needs of businesses to have a strong presence online, Splattered Paint Marketing seeks to help business owners in Michigan and nationwide, optimize their reach and grow their reputation and revenue.

Splattered Paint Marketing launches new marketing services that will help revolutionize the way companies are branding themselves, reaching new customers and growing repeat business. If potential customers can't find your business online, they will most certainly find your competition, so Splattered Paint Marketing will help to make sure that doesn't happen.

What started out as a small project to design websites and help a few friends expand their local business presence online, soon morphed into a full service enterprise. "It was an easy and natural decision to make", said Terri Rowe, the owner. "I have all this knowledge about online marketing and web design, so why not use it to help other businesses."

The history of Splattered Paint Marketing began years ago and after a recent rebranding of the business and bringing on the latest tools, new technology and new services, they have expanded to a full service digital marketing agency and continue perfecting results to help businesses succeed online.

Every business can get a free snapshot report as claimed in their mission statement, which they pledge "Before we ever ask you for a dime, we will provide you with a valuable resource that you will benefit from immediately. We want to earn your trust and we're willing to work for it".

With marketing services cleverly named SearchlightSM, Pin the TailSM, BoomerangSM, Magnifying GlassSM and Engagement RingSM, among others, Splattered Paint Marketing will surely rise among the ranks of serious digital marketing agencies, with one main goal in mind... to rank your business on Google and bring you new customers. Page 1 is where you want to be and they will get you there.

Splattered Paint Marketing wants you to focus on your business and they will take care of your marketing needs. After all, their slogan is... "The Internet is a Canvas. We'll Splatter Your Brand For Optimum Reach, Reputation and Revenue. ©"
